Sponsored by Bradleys Both Parish Council

Issue 3 March 2020

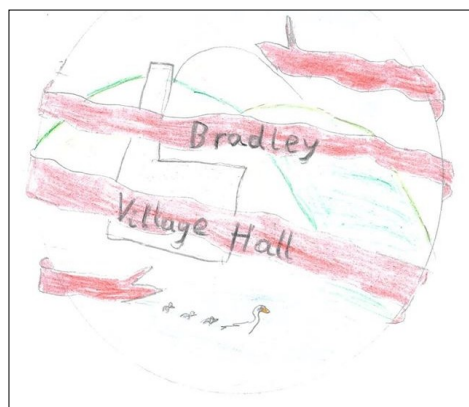

THANK YOU...

To all who attended the drop in meeting on 1st February. Both the Parish Council and the village groups were very grateful for those who volunteered and those who took an interest in their activities.

Thanks also to the children of Bradleys Both Community Primary School who took part in the village hall logo competition.

Congratulations to Finn from Class 4 who won and whose design will be edited by a graphic designer to form the Village Hall logo. Finn's design depicts the village surrounded by a red ribbon symbolising how everyone in the village comes together.

Those living in the Heath Drive and Green Close area will be aware of the cherry tree planting scheme with 6 young trees in place and ready to bloom again in 2020 despite all the recent high winds. A further 6 trees will be planted this year thanks again to the grant support provided by ward Councillor Andy Brown. With the agreement of local residents it is hoped to plant up to 20 cherry trees in this part of Bradley in the coming years.

Bradley In Bloom

Bradley in Bloom is a new group in Bradleys Both village with the aim of bringing people together to be involved in projects which improve our village environment. The vision is to improve the look of the environment whilst helping to make the village more environmentally friendly. This would be achieved by planting more trees and plants, including wildflowers, and installing habitat areas around the village. Hopefully by doing so homes would be provided for wildlife, soil erosion would be prevented and carbon dioxide captured.

In 2020 Bradley in Bloom have entered 'It's Your Neighbourhood' competition organised by the Royal Horticultural Society and their first project will be to improve the outside space around the village hall. The work will start early spring and they would love you to be involved. It will be a lot of fun and a brilliant way of working together as a community. At the village hall a community food garden will be provided, which will be a designated area where vegetables, fruit and herbs are grown for people to help themselves to the produce. Borders and planters will also be planted up for the community to enjoy and to benefit wildlife.

Bradley in Bloom will need to buy materials for the project and would warmly welcome sponsors. In exchange for sponsorship they would advertise your involvement.

A monthly gardening club is also being set up and the initial meeting is on Thursday 5th March at Bradley Village Hall. It will be a chance for people to meet, have a cuppa and share horticultural ideas. Bradley Gardening Club will have guest speakers, gardening book, plant and seed swops. It is also hoped that the gardening club will, from time to time, visit gardens and plant centres.

If you would like to be involved, or would like further information about Bradley in Bloom or Bradley Gardening Club, please contact Katie 07855548477 or Susan 07823 347561.

A man's best friend.

There are signs prohibiting dogs from going onto the playing field, children's play area or the picnic area. As these are areas where children play all dog owners are asked to honour the notices. Dog walkers also use the open country, farm land, footpaths and bridle ways in the parish.

Safe and hygienic practice is required in these areas also, without diligence and good practice farm animals and recreational walkers can be negatively affected

Craven District Council state that If a person in charge of a dog fails to clear up after it, they may be issued with a £50 fixed penalty. The offender will then have 14 days in which to pay the fine or face prosecution in Magistrate's Court, where a maximum fine of £1000 can be imposed.

However, councils across the country find it difficult to catch offenders. Wayne Gray, Environmental Health Officer at Craven District Council, said: "Tackling dog fouling is very important to us because it is one of the biggest concerns among residents.

"We do treat this as a high priority and seek to educate and inform the public. We carry out regular patrols and will issue fixed penalty notices to people who don't clean up after their pets.

"People often ask why we don't use DNA testing but that doesn't really work as it depends on the owner registering the dog in the first place – an irresponsible owner is unlikely to do this.

"It's a tricky problem to solve. People can help – if you witness an irresponsible dog owner who fails to clean up after their dog, please make a note of the date, time and location of the incident, along with a description of the dog and the owner, and report it to us along with their address if you know it.

"We know that most dog owners are responsible – it's just a small minority who spoil it for the rest of us."

If you have any information about an offender then please report this to Craven District Council at www.cravendc.gov.uk/cleaner-neighbourhoods/

Historic Minute item from the Parish Council Meeting in 1898

November 25th 1898

Meeting called to consider the stoppage of the footpath leading from above Hamblethorp Low Barn to Hamblethorp swing bridge. Evidence was tendered by some of the oldest inhabitants as to its being used for 60 years without being stopped or obstructed and the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "That we the Ratepayers of Bradleys Both strongly protest against the attempted stoppage of the footpath from near Hamblethorp Low Barn to Hamblethorp swing bridge, which has been used by the inhabitants from time immemorial and humbly beg the District Council to take such steps as will prevent any interference with the said path in the future."
